

London has caught the money panic and if she has it as bad as she usually does other evils, gunpowder and tar-barrels won't save the Old Lady of Threadneedle street.

All Fools' Day is gone, but left the fools be- hind. Had all competent persons taken part in the celebration no other business would have been possible.

Japan will never be civilized and all its infernal devices if we don't handle her representatives more carefully. The last outrage of which the Tycoon has just reason to complain is the drowning of his commissioner by the sinking of the French steamer Albatross. It is surely better at the end of one's days never to have seen a steamship than to be drowned by one, and if the Tycoon should so conclude, who can reasonably find fault with him?

The Herald is on the war path; the "intellectual department" is bursting with the stress of prophecy. It declares that if the West continues to insist upon inflating the currency against the protest of the East, powder and steel will certainly be called in to settle the controversy. We wouldn't do even the Herald the injustice to suppose, it is in earnest in talking such nonsense and have only to recommend that it get a new job to write for it, regardless of expense.

The stealing mania is striking downward through the official strata from Senators and Congressmen. A pestiferous gang of thieves infest the Capitol building composed of messengers, pages and supernumeraries generally, and nothing seems to be safe from them. From an inkstand to a quarto, from a penholder to an arm-chair, they steal all they can lay their hands on. Our representatives must surely have heard of what is called moral atmosphere and should consider in time who is responsible for this epidemic of petty larceny.

The man Riel, who became notorious last year in connection with the Manitoba insurrection, has got into a bad scrape at Albany. Under a charge of willful murder he had the pluck to take his seat in the House of Commons, upon whose roll Attorney General Clarke, of Manitoba, identified his name. The House immediately took action which placed Riel between two very disagreeable contingencies, either to come to the bar of the House and submit to arrest or stay away and be expelled and then arrested. He is now trying to decide.

Sanborn's Brooklyn trial fixed out through a legal technicality, the Judge ordered a verdict of acquittal because of serious flaws in the indictment. The fact is Sanborn's counsel were too many guns for Mr. Tenney, the District Attorney, who seemed to have plenty of enthusiasm but very little knowledge of the case. It is a shame that an arraignment so close to its moral aspects as that of Sanborn should fall through the crack of acumen in medical science. Butler did not himself appear in defence of his undertaking, yet if some of the "points" therein were not inspired by the Essex statesman our morbid imagination does that gentleman great injustice.

A Word to Dentists.

Dr. Clymer, of New York, asserts that Dr. Todd, of London, is responsible for the reaction in favor of alcohol as a remedy in medicine which has taken place within the last few years. Dr. C. further deposes that a prime cause of intemperance, so far as this vice prevails among women, is their habit of taking alcohol in some form in its capacity of a stimulant in fighting neuralgia and other acute nervous diseases. We shouldn't wonder if the medicine men had struck a bottom truth right here. We ourselves have heard of people not always women, who have taken a hot toddy (no reflection intended on the London doctor) to alleviate the accused agony of a four-story toothache. We don't extenuate the sin of it and are convinced it is better to groan and sweat for a month with this most aggravating of all diseases rather than take a single chance of becoming a drunkard. Yet in the name of human charity, which sooner or later every man and woman must ask of his or her fellows, isn't the temptation awful when one has a lumping toothache? Here a brilliant idea intrudes its shining scalp; the dentists must join the temperance movement professionally. Let the knights of the forceps assemble on given days at some central point in every town; then let them divide themselves into squads of one man each and visit all houses where the red flag of distress hangs on the door-knob and pull teeth for nothing. Thus the desire for rum to kill pain will be nipped in the nascent bud by the cold pinners of these merciful men of destiny. If they should say, "Where then will our profitable business go to?" we add, Go to, have dentists no heart; are they not members of the human family and therefore bound to share its gratuitous burdens with clergymen, editors and women? Open your mouth.

Practical Temperance Suggestions.

A saloon keeper in Troy has a letter to a Baptist minister in that city which touches upon a topic which should engage the attention of temperance people. He says there are sensitive saloon keepers who don't like the business of selling rum, but who can't readily get in any other business. And his proposition is: that the temperance men unite and help him start a Holly-Tee Inn, where young men can obtain cheap meals, find a quiet, comfortable place to read in, well furnished with reading matter of every desirable description.

This is a really practicable suggestion. Men who drink will not lose entirely their taste for sociality. They will want to meet their fellows and chat with them, and something in the nature of club-room is necessary to satisfy this need in their nature. Places of this kind can easily be made up of attractive than drinking places, and business attracts tends to drive reformed drunkards back to their old haunts, not primarily for drink but for interchange of social greetings and the discussion of the events of the day. Of course once back the old habit recurs with irresistible force.

All important business interests have their exchange, where dealers in the same kinds of goods exchange ideas; but at present there is no place where politicians, business men, young men, and men who have no homes but must look abroad for entertainment, can meet and exchange budgets of news, or do their part in forming that public opinion which rules the city.

It is a matter of grave regret that in our own city there is only one place, outside of drinking saloons, where a pleasant room is provided where gentlemen can thus pass the evening and find reading matter or anything to entertain or interest them. We should earnestly set ourselves to work in this city to provide Holly-Tee Inns well provided with everything that will attract young and old men from grog shops.

history of their native land which was as creditable to their heads as the indignant production of it on this occasion was to their hearts. When there came a lull in the tempest of speech, Mr. Miller arose under pressure of an original idea—an idea, the late statesman of which will commend it to all true Americans. He said that monuments built to commemorate great battles should stand where they would be seen by the greatest number of people; not necessarily on the ground of the conflict, which is often obscure and therefore seldom visited. Mr. Miller's view is so clearly the right one, we wonder it has not been conceived before. As to monuments erected to the fame of individuals merely, it has indeed been followed blindly as it ought to have been. Thus, whether Mr. Lincoln's memorial pile is ever actually placed near the spot where his body lay or not, it is still a comfort to know that a bronze image supposed to represent him stands in Union Square, New York, where it can be admired by thousands of people every day. But on account of their cheapness such statues may be multiplied all over the country; with battle monuments the case is different, therefore, so far as the United States are concerned with Mr. Miller's principle, it follows that all the battle monuments of our nation should be erected in Union Square or in Nassau street, where, unquestionably, they would do the most good. Or if they could be built on platform cars especially adapted to uphold them, and compromised to suit the gauges of the largest number of our principal lines, the arrangement would be better. In this way in time the whole people would be able to see them; for, under an intelligent and efficient Monumental Railway Management, hundreds of them could be kept in constant circulation. They would tag merrily along in the rear of freight trains and afford a suggestive spectacle to the passengers of the lightning express as it rushed toward an open draw-bridge. But we are wandering fearfully from what we set out to say. A strong point, a point in which the solemn failure to pierce the taxpaying imagination, was made against the monument proposition by Mr. Waehner of New York, who told the patriots plainly that the state couldn't afford to consider the subject in the present condition of its treasury. Roused at opposition grounded upon motives so sordid and mean, Mr. Houghton wanted to know whether Mr. Waehner's great-grandfather wasn't a Hessian. Waehner grew his indignation with undisciplined contempt for admitting the possibility of his (Waehner's) error having had a great-grandfather at all, and intimated a doubt whether Houghton was possessed of such an ancestor. The dramatic power of this thrilling scene is said to have "beggared description." Our state ought to be proud of two Assemblymen who have the soul to forget for a moment what they can make out of rapid transit companies, to contend, like the ordinary knights of the hour and fame of the day, almost without preparation, for a great-grandfather, and immediately drew a picture of him as he appeared at the battle of Bunker Hill. The mean insinuation flung out by Waehner, that most likely the "old gentleman" wore a red coat at the time, "was treated by the patriots with the sardonic laughter it deserved. Need we add that the appropriation was not stricken out? Now we shall have the monument man in order, with Mr. Houghton's great-grandfather's marble ghost sitting up at his top.

TERRIBLE DISASTER.

Seven Persons Burned to Death—Destructive Conflagration. MILLERTOWN, Butler Co., Pa., April 1.—Fire early this morning broke out in the Central Hotel, which was totally destroyed and seven persons burned to death. One woman leaped from the third story window and was seriously injured. All the houses on the east side of Main street, from Frederick's grocery and hardware store, including the Central and Harlow Houses, opera house, Reed & Durand's hardware store and Sink's Hotel and two other buildings, south, and on the west side of Main street from Redbank's saloon north, including Butler County Bank, Union Savings Bank, express office, Millertown Savings Bank, Western's grocery, up to Schneider's billiard room on Slippery Rock street, on the north side from Frederick's grocery and shoe store west to Barnhart's grocery store, and from Hook's dwelling on the south side of Slippery Rock street east to Ruff's laundry, making sixty-nine buildings in all, were burned. More persons are thought to have been burned, but it is not yet known.

THE RHODE ISLAND ELECTION.

A Light Vote in the State. PROVIDENCE, April 1.—The state election took place here to-day. There was no Democratic nomination for state officers and the vote was very light. Henry Howard was re-elected Governor by a vote of 12,269 to 1,509 for Lyman Pierce and 107 scattering. Charles C. Van Zandt was elected Lieutenant Governor, receiving 7,679 votes to 6,572 for William T. Sayles, the prohibition candidate. Joshua M. Addison was re-elected Secretary of State and William Gayles Attorney General with but little opposition. Samuel Clark was elected General Treasurer by a large majority over Henry Goddard, the prohibition candidate. The chief interest in the election centered in the choice of members of the Legislature, who will choose the United States Senator. The New Assembly is largely Republican, as usual, but the Senatorial question remains in doubt and probably cannot be definitely determined until a trial of strength or the respective candidates is had in general assembly on the first Tuesday in June. In this city, where the contest for Assemblymen was mainly between friends of Gen. Burnside and friends of all other candidates, the result is very close, the friends of Burnside probably carrying most of the Assemblymen by majorities of from three upwards, while for one Senator and four Representatives there is no choice.

A SWINE MILK FACTORY.

What Brooklyn and New York Is Poisoned With.

NEW YORK, April 1.—The Brooklyn Eagle has discovered the existence, just beyond the limits of that city, in stables filled with filth and dirt, packed together in the closest possible space and in all conditions of disease, of 800 sows, fed upon hot swill from an adjoining distillery. Some of the sows, others, however, others have festering sores upon their legs and udders, and some are so bloated with dropsy that they have to be propped up, never to rise again. Others are so cadaverous from disease that their bones protrude from the flesh. All have abbreviated tails, incised as an inoculation process to modify the acuteness and intensity of the disease, which results from the inhalation of swill. In the stables there was no ventilation except the air that struggled through the doors. No light was visible between the boards. The ceilings were low and the cows stood knee deep in mud and filth, which abounded on every side.

The Eagle publishes the names of some twenty dealers who peddle swill milk to the amount of 12,000 quarts daily as Orange county, pure Putnam county and Long Island milk, to retail dealers and citizens of the two cities. The number of swine luxuriating on the noisome food obtained from the distillery could not be ascertained. Their pens fringed all sides of the buildings and gave evidence that the citizens obtained much of their corned pork from this locality.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. COLE moved that the Committee on Privileges and Elections be allowed to sit during the recess of the Senate to consider the Thompson-Yeomans contested election case, Carried.

BILLS PASSED.

For the protection of factory children. Mr. RAY moved to recommit the bill to the Committee on Manufactures, with instructions to amend so as to provide as follows: "Children under the age of 14 shall not be employed in any of the establishments within this state for the manufacture of textile fabrics, threads, yarns or worsteds more than six hours a week or more than four hours a day, or on any legal holiday, under a penalty of ten dollars for each offense to be paid by the employer."

The amendment was lost.

The bill was then read and lost. Mr. KING moved to reconsider and that the motion lie on the table. Carried.

Regulating the sale of illuminating gas manufactured by the Equity Gas Light Company of the Eastern district of the city of Brooklyn and the sale of the same to manufacturers in certain wards of said city.

Mr. MCGOWAN moved that the vote by which the bill passed be reconsidered, and that the motion lie on the table. Carried.

The CHAIR presented a communication from the Auditor of the Canal Department asking for the passage of an act amending Chapter 358 of the laws of 1810, entitled "An act concerning judgments and mortgages on lands and for other purposes, passed May 14, 1810."

The object of the bill is to permit private banks or private bankers to become depositaries of canal tolls.

ASSEMBLY.

THE SUPPLY BILL.

When the Supply Bill was reported as corrected, engrossed and ready for the final vote, it now has its third reading.

Mr. BADGER moved to recommit with instructions to strike out the $90,000 appropriation to Dr. Swinburne, and report forthwith. He was defeated by a majority of 50 to 20.

After a lengthy debate, Mr. FISH moved the previous question. Lost—40 to 61.

After further debate, the motion to recommit to strike out prevailed—108 to 8.

EVENING SESSION.

Mr. WOODIN reported favorably the bill making further provision for the audit and payment of the expenses of the ring suits in New York.

The Senate in Committee of the Whole considered the bill abolishing the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Mr. WOOD offered a substitute for the bill providing for a new Board of Regents every six years and abolishing the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction.

After some discussion the bill was progressed.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The amendment of Mr. LOGAN having been offered as a substitute for the third section of the Finance Committee's bill, and he having accepted the amendment of Gordon, also the amendment of the Finance Committee, the national bank circulation in those states and territories having less than their proportion shall be upon the basis of population and wealth until each state has an amount of such bank circulation equal to that of Pennsylvania, leaving the section as reported by the committee, with the exception of the sentence, "Pennsylvania for New York," which was rejected by yeas 25 to nays 26.

Mr. MORRILL of Vermont offered an amendment providing that the maximum limit of fractional currency issued for circulation shall be fixed at $40,000,000, and the excess outstanding be withdrawn as early as practicable. Rejected—yeas 19, nays 30.

Mr. SHERMAN moved an amendment repealing portions of Sections 31 and 32 of the national currency act so as to require that national banks shall keep their lawful money reserve within their own vaults, forbidding them to keep their reserves elsewhere, and providing that a national bank shall redeem its notes at any other place than over its own counter.

Pending discussion on motion of Mr. CHANDLER the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

The House took up the currency bill and Messrs. PHILIPS of New Jersey and HAWLEY of Connecticut, both members of the Banking Committee, addressed the House in opposition to inflation.

The House at 5 o'clock took a recess till half-past 7, the evening session to be for action on the bill for the revision of the laws, T. Sayles, the prohibition candidate. Joshua M. Addison was re-elected Secretary of State and William Gayles Attorney General with but little opposition. Samuel Clark was elected General Treasurer by a large majority over Henry Goddard, the prohibition candidate. The chief interest in the election centered in the choice of members of the Legislature, who will choose the United States Senator. The New Assembly is largely Republican, as usual, but the Senatorial question remains in doubt and probably cannot be definitely determined until a trial of strength or the respective candidates is had in general assembly on the first Tuesday in June. VINEGAR BITTERS
Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative, well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion, Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sanguiferous, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers, throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Mexican Gulf, and other rivers, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J. Walker's VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fortified.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Cough, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scurful, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammation, Inflammation, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Skin Itches, Itch, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Scars, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetters, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scars, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the decline of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find it impurities lurking in the system, and the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is full; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
